A: Go to the game, select your save game. Then go to the main menu, and select "Trace". You'll then be given the title of the save game, which is the same as the folder that contains the Sim Girl Dna 2 save. If you're too lazy to select it from the main menu, you can manually delete/move the folder, or even delete the game entirely. The "Value*8" trick is likely a memory leak, since the memory used by it is not released (added to the "Used Memory" category in the memory debug menu). Make sure to delete the debug.rtf file from the game folder as well. Looking over the expenses and income lists for 2013, it's clear why the total expenditures grew to nearly $2 million. Payroll exploded to $627,675 with wages and salaries alone at $528,867. That's up $68,898 from the year before, largely because of the addition of two deputies and an associate principal. And the total 2011 budget for those three staff members was $487,166 – so the new budget already exceeded last year's total by a significant margin. Taxes grew by a whopping $270,824 to $306,032 – the year before taxes were $254,682. Fire, police and EMS all increased their budgets for the year, bringing overall insurance costs to $2,473,464, up $2,038,972 from last year. Building and grounds expenses climbed to $1,935,844, up $760,345 from the year before, with utility expenses at $1,329,936. Staffing grew by $31,500, and maintenance and administration costs increased by $198,344. Scheduling expenses, however, fell to $424,394. Expenses for professional services were relatively modest at $169,069, up $9,574 from the year before. Professional staff totals were also flat at $2,558,000, down $358,000 from last year. Non-professional services increased by $40,100 to $2,928,000. Overhead charges for the district totaled $1,440,481. Including retirement and other miscellaneous costs, that number rose to $1,764,722. The independent auditor's report ba244e880a
