(W) The story of La Tiganci and other Stories is about a woman named Ana (The name of the story is in turkish and therefore it is not fully translated). (W) The hero of this story, named Mihai, is a lazy young man without jobs, parents or friends. He is just an average with a curse on his name. (E) 2,000 years ago, a Gypsy woman named Ina was sentenced to be burned as a witch. Before her execution, Ina asked to be allowed to visit the fountain of her country on the night of the new moon. (E) Mihai went to the fountain one night. While he was there, he heard three daughters crying, and he saw three Gypsy girls in terrible distress. (E) Together with the three Gypsy girls, Mihai went back to his home and to his parents, who promised to take care of him. (E) However, Mihai became lazy and lazy. When his father asked him about his studies, he said that he did not even study at the university, and he could be seen drinking in a public cafe. (E) After some years, Mihai's father who was a little confused and ill-tempered, went to the magistrate of the city. He reported the news that his son is an unruly boy and a lazy person. (E) The magistrate decided to order the gendarm of the village to drive Mihai from the town. The gendarm was a soldier who was on duty during the time of the Emperor Justinian. (E) The gendarm drove Mihai from the town by midnight on the night of the new moon. (E) After he left the village, Mihai went to the fountain and met Ina and told her what happened. (E) That night Ina went to her fountain and prayed to the Holy Virgin Mary
