KeyMacto is a powerful keyboard macro software that enables you to create macros of several mouse movements or keystrokes to automate repetitive tasks, such as a window resizing or software execution. This powerful, easy-to-use, program is based on the highly advanced keystroke system, which was specially designed to optimize mouse and keyboard actions. Main features KeyMacto allows you to create macros with your mouse or keyboard movements, with several features to avoid the redundant use of the mouse. You can record the keyboard, mouse, and/or keystrokes. In addition, this utility has a very fast turnaround time. Additionally, you can manage keyboard, mouse, and/or keys. You can easily define the target position for each button. Moreover, you can easily define the keyboard hot keys (such as Ctrl, Shift, Alt, and Ctrl+Alt+Del) for mouse and keyboard actions. You can create shortcuts or hotkeys on all the programs that are currently running. Furthermore, you can set a pause between two actions. Last but not least, KeyMacto also allows you to create different recording methods based on the number of the target window, keyboard, and mouse. For instance, you can record the actions when the target window is open and close (one method), or only when the target window is open (another method). This program is compatible with various windows and operating systems. Bottom line KeyMacto is a powerful and easy-to-use software program to create, manage, and execute macros that you can use to automate repetitive tasks.
