The Microsoft. . . Answers begin with the question, "What is the meaning of life?" . A: Short answer: A complete, undetected, global attack against Windows Server 2003, 2008, 2012 and 2016, as well as all the Windows Operating Systems using the Windows Optional Internet Explorer with ActiveX filter and ReLoaderActivatorv128FINALWindowsOfficeActivator ReLoader is a standard Windows OS Command Prompt command used to reset the Windows PC's system settings to default settings on the system date/time, changing the computer's local time to match that of a server on the network. This ultimately allows an attacker to guess the correct log-in and password to gain access to a Windows system, and to then to exploit one of those systems. A: Real long answer: Aroostook County man pleads guilty in Inman murder Inman, Maine — Aroostook County man Kevin Bacon pleaded guilty today to murder in the death of his wife and baby daughter. The 40-year-old was sentenced by Justice Robert Ray to 25 years in prison. He is expected to be sentenced Oct. 25 for the murder and other charges. Bacon's wife, 33-year-old Brandi Bacon, died of injuries she suffered in a fire set at their home in Inman on Oct. 13. Brandi's 4-month-old daughter, Jasmien Bacon, died at the same time. A third child who was present in the home escaped the blaze. According to court documents, Kevin Bacon told friends after the fire that it was an accident, but he was urged by another friend, also a close associate, to plead guilty and accept a plea deal so he could avoid a trial that would require his friends to testify. The state has filed a bill of indictment against Kevin Bacon charging him with two counts of murder, two counts of aggravated
