I had to do exactly what it says. Be careful when typing in. I accidentally type in a number instead of the drive letter. But after I fix that it worked just fine. I like that it removes programs when you uninstall. Also a huge plus for me is that I will be able to more effectively speed up my computer. I was just kind of confused when it says to click on the second option. I read everything else on that article except that and couldn't figure it out. I opened it and saw the file and clicked install, and it got rid of a bunch of programs and files, but then I ended up with a'semi-fat'
