PETALING JAYA: PAS will not take the Sha'ari's side in the party's internal feud. PAS president Datuk Seri Abdul Hadi Awang said that it was the party's prime duty to resolve its internal dispute because the issues involved were of grave consequences. "We don't interfere with internal matters. "It is the right of PAS to resolve its internal problems. The party is very strong and it has stood the test of time. "We cannot waver on this," he said in a news conference after attending the 26th PAS General Assembly here. PAS deputy president Datuk Seri Dr Mohd Rashid Hasnon (right) and party treasurer Mohd Aminuddin Mohd Amar are the main players in the feud that started earlier in the year. Over an issue regarding division of post-election administration (Preliminaries) and the electorate's recording devices, the duo had a heated argument which ultimately led to their sacking from the party. PAS deputy president Mohd Rashid and party treasurer Dr Aminuddin had
